

Mukhyamantri Vidyarthi Protsahan Yojna

Under this scheme, the Government of Bihar provides financial assistance to eligible minority students who pass the Intermediate (BSEB – Muslim Girls Only), Maulvi, Fauquania(Muslim Girls Only) examinations with First Division from the Bihar State Madrasa Education Board (BSMEB).

The screenshot displays the E-Kalyan portal of the Minority Welfare Department, Government of Bihar. The website features a header with the department's name and the NIC logo. Below the header is a navigation bar with links to Home, About, Schemes, and Help. A large banner image shows several modern, multi-story residential buildings. Below the banner is a section titled "Minority Welfare Schemes" with a description: "Explore various government initiatives designed to support and empower minority communities in Bihar". This section contains five cards, each representing a different scheme:

- Mukhyamantri Alpsankhyak Chhatravas Anudaan Yojna: Under this scheme, students studying residing in minority hostels are given the benefit of hostel grant at the rate of Rs. 1000.00 (one thousand) per month per student.
- Alpsankhyak Muslim Mahila Parityaqta / Talaqshuda hetu Sahayata Yojna: Under this scheme, the State Government provides financial assistance (Rs 25,000/-) to minority Muslim abandoned/divorced women to strengthen their economic condition and make them self-reliant.
- Hostel Admission: Must belong to the minority community. He must be studying in a recognized institute/school/college/university or recognized technical institute in the district he is applying for.
- Alpsankhyak Awasiya Vidyalaya Yojana: Minority Residential Schools in Bihar have been set up to serve religious and linguistic minority communities, with one of the major initiatives being the Bihar State Minority Residential School Scheme (BSAAVR), which provides free residential education to minority students from Class 9 to Class 12.
- Mukhyamantri Vidyarthi Protsahan Yojna: Under this scheme, the Government of Bihar provides financial assistance to eligible minority students who pass the Intermediate (BSEB – Muslim Girls Only), Maulvi, or Fauquania examinations with First Division from the Bihar State Madrasa Education Board (BSMEB).

The bottom of the screenshot shows a Windows taskbar with various application icons, a search bar, and system information including the date (12-08-2026) and time (10:25).
